FEW BANDS IN PARADE HERE ON JULY 4TH

Gettysburg's Fourth of July parade may be smaller this year because for the first time in years it is being held on July 4.

That was the report presented by the parade committee at a meeting of the 99th Anniversary Committee Friday night at the engine house, E. Middle St.

Robert Redding, parade chairman, said a number of drum corps which ordinarily appear in the parades will not be able to present this year because of commitments elsewhere. Armed Forces bands and drum corps also are not available on July 4.

Prizes awarded by the firemen for drum corps are $125 first, $100 second, $75 third and $50 fourth. Only the Biglerville High School and the local high school bands have signed so far to take part. Band prizes are $75 first, $50 second and $35 third.

BETTER FLOATS

While bands will be scarce, better floats are expected. The Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce will engage a professional float maker and share the cost with business places or others who plan to enter a float in the parade. The Lions and Kiwanis Clubs plan to engage a professional.

Martin Crabill, cochairman, said the Chamber asked the Battle Anniversary committee to consider setting up a theme and different classifications for floats for the 1963 parade, but the committee felt that it could not make any decisions for 1963 now "because we haven't the slightest idea whether we will have the parade next year or whether the Pennsylvania Commission for the 100th Anniversary of the Battle will handle the parade or whether there will be any parade at all."

Redding and others reported they have received inquiries as to what type of parade is planned for 1963.

This year's July 4 parade will begin at 4 p.m. The first division will form on Long Lane, the second and third on the recreation field and the fourth on West St.

ADULT CLASS ENROLLMENT IS MOUNTING

The two-term plan for adult evening extension classes, tried for the first time in the 1960-61 school year, proved highly successful and likely will be continued on the same basis during the next school year, an announcement from the office of Gettysburg's superintendent of schools, H. Edgar Riegler, showed today.

Enrollment in the evening classes here has nearly tripled in the last five years and the sharpest rise came in the last two years when the two-term plan was followed. Total enrollment for the evening classes in the last five years follows: 1957-58, 79; 1958-59, 95; 1959-60, 100; 1960-61, 189 (total for both terms), and 1961-62, 214.

"ANSWER EVIDENT"

Costs per student per term have ranged from $3.51 to $6.80 in the five-year period. Last winter the per student cost was $5.55.

Superintendent Riegler recalled that when the two-term plan was inaugurated there was "some concern" about whether there would be enough students to justify two terms. "The answer is evident in this tabulation of attendance figures," he added.

Gettysburg and Straban Twp. residents have been able to attend the classes without paying tuition fees. Persons from other districts are charged a per student rate to cover operating costs. The cost for the Gettysburg and Straban folk is paid by the respective school districts.

"PLEASURE IN PRAYER"

Many are the pleasures . . . this life on earth affords . . . each gives something special . . . in form of just rewards . . . and I confess I have and will . . . enjoy pleasures of earth . . . this has been man's manner . . . from his date of birth . . . but of all the pleasures . . . this life has to give . . . none does more than prayer to make . . . life sweeter to live . . . through contrite prayer . . . peace can be found . . . however rough the sea . . . conversation with the Lord . . . gives hope in things to be . . . and who is there who can deny . . . the value of a prayer . . . when death or sickness fills our hearts . . . with wild waves of despair . . . only good things come from prayer . . . things we all can treasure . . . indeed, prayer affords us with . . . a world of untold pleasure.

publican convention a week from today.

Even though Friday night's victory didn't prove much—it gives Teddy first place on the ballot, plus a note that the convention endorsed him—the Kennedys go into everything from touch football to conventions aiming to win.

And young Teddy won here with a technique his brother developed in Massachusetts and perfected in New Hampshire, Wisconsin and West Virginia: bright young men in slick automobiles, pretty girls in crisp dresses, and unremitting industry behind scenes to make sure each delegate is reached again and again.

It's worked wonders for John F. Kennedy, and so far it's working for Teddy.

LEADS PROJECT IN COURTLAND

Thomas Hemingway, Courtland, N. Y., a graduate of Gettysburg High School, was in charge of a major "face lifting" project held recently for Camp Puchas, Boy Scout camp near Courtland.

Hemingway, a member of the Courtland, N.Y., council camping committee and a salesman for State Equipment Co., arranged the project which required 13 heavy duty bulldozers to move 7,500 tons of earth and 500 tons of cleanup materials in one day. Twenty-one contractors co-operated in the project to construct a rifle range, lay tile, level a parade ground, construct a volleyball and ping pong area, deepen and widen a stream and construct a road.

The work volunteered would have cost $6,000 had a contractor been asked to do it on a contract, it was estimated.

Hemingway, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hemingway, now of Pittsburgh attended Bucknell College after graduation from high school here. He is married to the former Jane Ramer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Ramer, Buford Ave.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a long gown of ivory silk featuring a fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline, enhanced with Chantilly lace, seed pearls and iridescent, and long tapered sleeves. The bouffant skirt, with a back bustle, was decorated with Chantilly lace flowing from the waist into a chapel train.

A Juliet cap with a crown effect held her bouffant fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of pale green cymbidium orchids, white fiji chrysanthemums, and baby ivy.

The maid of honor and attendants wore street-length dresses of bouquet taffeta in pastel hues of jonquil yellow, orchid pink, Nile, and azure blue. The dresses featured a scoop neckline and cap sleeves with a dome-shaped skirt caught up at the side with a half bow. Petal crowns in matching shades completed their ensemble. Each girl carried a cascade of mixed flowers, roses, iris, carnations and stocks, with ribbons to match the rainbow hues of their gowns.

RECEPTION IS HELD
Miss Sue Anne Melnicove, Pine Grove, was gift hostess.

A reception was held at the American Legion home in Tower City.

The bride's mother wore a spring blue street-length sheath dress with a softly draped neckline. She wore white accessories and a white cymbidium orchid corsage. Her ensemble was completed by a matching blue pill box hat.

The couple left on a wedding trip. For traveling, the bride chose a sleeveless sheath of lime green with a matching hat and white accessories. The couple will temporarily reside in Gettysburg before leaving for tours in Oklahoma and Georgia. Lt. Brown's first assignment is Hawaii.

Mrs. Brown, a Porter-Tower Joint High School graduate, will complete her work toward a Bachelor of Arts degree, majoring in psychology, at Gettysburg College next month. She is a member of the class of 1963, and was active in the Student Christian Association, Independent Women, Owl and Nightingale, Class Council and Alpha Psi Omega.

ELKS URGE OBSERVANCE OF FLAG DAY

Stressing the need for a revival of "the fervent patriotism that won our freedom," G. Noel Flynn, exalted ruler of the Gettysburg Elks lodge, today called for a community-wide salute to the flag on Flag Day, Thursday, June 14.

The Gettysburg lodge will hold an observance honoring the flag on the 185th anniversary of its adoption by the Continental Congress in 1777. The lodge's observance will be held during the regular lodge meeting Monday evening and will include "The History of the Flags" by Fred G. Pfeffer.

Flynn urged that the flag be displayed before every home and place of business on Flag Day. "The habits of apathy and complacency weaken the spirit of patriotism," the Elks' leader said. "The fervent patriotism that won our freedom is the only thing that will preserve it. We should strengthen our spirit of allegiance by practicing and manifesting our loyalty to American principles and to the flag, which is the symbol of those principles."

Flynn said that his lodge will be one of 2,000 Elks lodges across the nation conducting Flag Day programs. He pointed out that the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks has been observing Flag Day for more than half a century.

TEN YEARS AGO

Hansons Receive Gifts: Alumni of Gettysburg College said goodbye to Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, its president for 29 years, and Mrs. Hanson with a shower of gifts and tributes at the annual alumni collation Saturday noon. The alumni presented the Hansons with a 1962 Cadillac sedan as a material testimonial to their many accomplishments at Gettysburg College. John A. Apple, Sunbury, class of 1919, made the presentation. Mrs. Dorothy Eckert, Baltimore, speaking for the Woman's League, presented Mrs. Hanson with a gift of 29 red roses — "warm, rich, with hearts of pure gold that are typical of our relation with you," Stewart Veale, for the student body, presented the couple with two pieces of luggage. "One of the most important contributions you have made is to the students," Veale said. At the conclusion of Dr. Hanson's annual talk to the group, the more than 700 people attending the collation stood and applauded for several minutes. It was the largest collation gathering in the history of the college. In presenting the car to Dr. Hanson, President Apple of the Alumni Association said: "The alumni have well recognized the marvelous work you have been able to accomplish in your 29 years at Gettysburg College. Over 1,400 alumni, more than ever gave to the Loyalty Fund, have contributed to give you this automobile. I present to you, on behalf of the alumni of Gettysburg College, the keys to the 1962 Cadillac sedan standing outside." The committee in charge of the gift was William B. Stevens, class of 1925; Charles Eby, class of 1933, and Henry M. Scharf, class of 1925. Dr. Hanson in his annual message said: "The period has been punctuated by war, depression, postwar confusion. The years have been very precious years. When I was a child I decided to give my life to Him. I have tried to live up to that promise. Saying goodbye to Gettysburg College is like saying goodbye to my wife — it is inconceivable. In my 29 years, 6,146 alumni, who are still living, graduated. That compares with the approximate 7,500 members of the alumni association today. Twenty-nine years ago I made a pledge. I have fulfilled that pledge — the development of men and women whose supreme concern is loyalty to God, country and Gettysburg College."

Hansons Entertain At Dinner: Dr. and Mrs. Henry W. A. Hanson were hosts at dinner at Huber Hall Sunday noon to members of the board of trustees, honorary degree recipients, the speakers of the day, representative town people, heads of departments of the faculty and faculty committee members. All the service clubs, the Chamber of Commerce, the Retail Merchants Association and other groups from Gettysburg were represented at the dinner which was attended by approximately 150. This was the Hansons' 48th wedding anniversary.

Truman's Seizure Struck Down: The Supreme Court struck down President Truman's seizure of the steel industry. The vote was 6 to 3. Justice Black delivered the historic decision for the majority. It is almost certain to touch off another quick strike by some 650,000 CIO steel workers.

Mrs. Myers Buried: Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Alice Geiselman Myers, 73, widow of Gervus W. Myers, who died at her home, 32 E. Middle St., late Wednesday night, were held Sunday afternoon from the Bender Funeral Home.

New Minister Arrives Today: The newly appointed pastor of the Methodist Church, the Rev. Victor K. Meredith Jr., and his wife, arrived today from Espy, Pa., to occupy the recently purchased parsonage at 625 Highland Avenue. He is a graduate of Boston Theological Seminary. Today's Talk

PUBLICITY
Probably one of the most powerful weapons of modern times is the innocent sounding one of publicity.
Great business houses throughout the world now have their publicity departments. Cities have them — and of course human beings have their own private publicity departments, for we all get a thrill therein, whether we acknowledge it or not.
It is rather speculative as to why people desire publicity. Perhaps, it is selfishness with some, vanity in others; but I have noticed that even with those who most shrink from it there is a certain pride in honest publicity that brings satisfaction.
And I have been told by those who make it a business to give publicity to people, that some of the wealthiest and most famous people — those who do not need publicity — really seek it. This is difficult to understand.
The fact remains, however, that were it not for the human stories of men and women, the thrilling, fascinating experiences that people and businesses go through, and which are told in the public press and in magazines, these same publications would have little sale.
We like to know about others. We like to know that they experience what we do, that they are much akin to all the reactions that we are. Publicity really unites the human family.
I do not believe that you can give too much publicity to a good thing, a great idea, or a useful man or woman. Or to a book that is very much worthwhile. When anyone has told me of a fine book I have always felt indebted to that person.
If all peoples of the world spoke the same language, got together among themselves, and understood the ideals, hopes and ambitions of one another, there would soon be an end to all "hot" and "cold" wars! Perhaps publicity, used wisely, will eventually bring about this millennium.

Just Folks
AN UNTIDY MAN'S JUSTIFICATION
An untidy man and a tidy woman are their own despair, she to whom orderliness is human. As she follows his footsteps by day and night, patiently toiling to set things right.
Yet this is the truth that all discover, As time goes rolling by, Man is untidy the wide-world over, As my father and I, And as mother followed my dad, so she Follows to straighten the room for me.
Best is it so that such line should border Woman and man, For were both of us worships of order And spick and span Our lives might shine with perfection's glow, But out of them laughter and love would go.

The borough is one of 94 communities in the state which have kept their streets and highways fatality-free for the entire year. The honor will be conferred at appropriate ceremonies here in the near future. "These 94 cities and boroughs didn't escape having people killed on their roads just by luck," Messner said. IN SEMIFINALS
FOR CHOICE OF
PENNA. QUEEN

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Someone's audacity got pretty Madeleine McGee of Midland into tonight's Miss Pennsylvania semifinals for the Miss Universe beauty pageant.

The anonymous person sent in an application for the green-eyed, brown-haired 19-year-old to be a contestant in the Miss Beaver County preliminary last May. She won.

"They (the officials of the Miss Beaver County pageant) called and told me my application had reached them," Miss McGee recalled today. "I accepted since it was in."

SEMI-FINALISTS
To this day, Miss McGee says she doesn't know who entered her name in the contest.

Her measurements are 32-23-35½ and she hopes to make nursing a career.

For two other pretty misses who are among tonight's 30 semifinalists, it was by their own doing at the suggestion of friends who asked them to enter local preliminaries.

Joanne Luschni, a 20-year-old secretary from Erie, won the Miss Fairview contest.

Miss Luschni, a blue-eyed brunette with measurements of 34-22-36, said "I didn't have any idea of going in." She explained a mobile homes firm which promoted the local contest asked her to enter.

Patricia Lou Schmitt, 22, of New Kensington, was named Miss Pittsburgh after the owner of a modeling school she attended asked her if she would like to enter the beauty pageant.

"With encouragement on her part, I did," said Miss Schmitt, a nurse at the Allegheny Valley Hospital and an amateur magician.

Miss Schmitt has blue eyes and ash blonde hair. She measures 36-24-35.

Another semifinalist, Pat Ogden, 20, of Sharon, who will be representing that city, has been in three beauty contests.

Miss Ogden, who has brown hair and brown eyes and measurements of 40-25-37, finished third in the Miss Shenango Valley contest last June and was among the 10 finalists in the Miss Sharon contest in May.

Pat works in the commercial department of the Bell Telephone Co. in Sharon and also is going to college part time at the Shenango Center of Edinboro State College. She hopes to teach someday.

The finals of the contest will be held Sunday night with the winner going to Miami Beach, Fla., July 7 to compete as Miss Pennsylvania for the Miss U.S.A. title. Miss U.S.A. then will enter the world competition.

WANTS FACTS ON FBI PROBE

BEAVER FALLS, Pa. (AP) — The Republican congressional candidate from Pennsylvania's 25th District Atty. Harvey Robinson, says he is not satisfied with incumbent Rep. Frank M. Clark's explanation of a recent FBI investigation into his activities.

Robinson said Thursday night he will continue to press for an explanation of what prompted the FBI investigation.

Clark, a Democrat from Bessemer, said he was cleared in the investigation.

Robinson, campaigning to seize Clark's congressional seat, first raised the issue at a meeting of young Republicans Wednesday night.

Clark quoted a letter from U. S. Attorney General Robert Kennedy in reply. The letter said: "In connection with your inquiry, an FBI investigation was conducted in your district because of certain allegations made against you. A thorough review has been made by the Department of Justice, Criminal Division, and I am advised that there is no foundation for prosecution on the basis of the allegations made. Therefore, the case has been closed."

McGonigle Marries
Mrs. Ruth V. Deal

READING, Pa. (AP) — The marriage of Arthur T. McGonigle, former Republican candidate for governor of Pennsylvania, to Mrs. Ruth V. Deal of Dayton, Ohio, was disclosed here Friday.

It was learned that McGonigle, chairman of the board of Bachman Bakeries Corp., and Mrs. Deal were wed May 14, in Elkton, Md. Witnesses to the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. McCain of New York City, McCain is chairman of the board of the George W. Helme Co., parent firm of Bachman.

Other details including where the couple is honeymooning were not available. McGonigle was defeated for governor in 1958.

PRESIDENT
PLANS TO CUT
INCOME TAX

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy pins his strategy for prosperity on a five-point tax package that includes across-the-board income tax cuts starting next January.

"There is no need for this country to stand helplessly by and watch a recovery run out of gas," Kennedy told his news conference Thursday.

"We have a program to boost it and I hope that all those who are concerned about their stocks or their profits or their jobs will help us get action on this program," he added.

Thus inviting public support, including support from critics who contend administration policies upset the stock market, Kennedy urged Congress to get down to business quickly on his proposals.

Tax talk highlighted the news conference in which Kennedy snapped back at Republican detractors and said he would take the stump for Democratic candidates in the November elections.

He made clear the administration does not intend to recommend an immediate cut in income taxes. But he said he will offer a tax reform bill providing reductions in both personal and corporate income taxes, effective Jan. 1, for congressional action next year.

Details are being worked out, he said, but will result in a net loss—the reductions "will not be wholly offset by other reforms."

FISHER WILL
SUE IN VEGAS

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Eddie Fisher and Elizabeth Taylor—separated by an ocean—appear to be in disagreement on how their divorce is to be handled.

Fisher said here Thursday that it wouldn't be gentlemanly for him to shed the actress, so he'll sue for divorce in Las Vegas, Nev., and she'll get the decree by countersuit.

The couple will cooperate to end the marriage, the singer said.

But Miss Taylor's personal secretary, who is with the actress in Rome, said the screen siren knows nothing about the announced divorce-filing plan.

Richard Hanley said Miss Taylor had no comment when told about Fisher's statement.

Fisher said the divorce grounds would be mental cruelty. He'll start the required six-week Nevada residence on July 24 when he begins a night club engagement in Las Vegas.

Miss Taylor is playing Cleopatra to Richard Burton's Marc Antony in a film in Rome. Burton is the actor involved in the rift in the Fisher-Taylor marriage.

CLAIMS TRUTH
SURPRESSED IN
ESTES PROBE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Robert E. Manuel, dismissed Republican counsel to a House investigating committee, charged Friday the group's inquiry into the Billie Sol Estes case "is being distorted—and the truth suppressed."

In a statement, Manuel quoted an Agriculture Department official as saying Estes personally pressured him by invoking the names of the late House Speaker Sam Rayburn and Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, but that Johnson's name was not brought into public testimony.

Manuel added: "This incident points up the way this investigation is being distorted—and the truth suppressed—either because of shoddy preparation, or a willingness to cover up."

Manuel said another incident involves a discussion by the subcommittee in closed session of how to deal with testimony "which would implicate certain members of Congress and at least one very high-ranking administration official."

SENT GIFTS
"The testimony, taken in executive session, related to a list of individuals to whom Estes allegedly sent gifts in the form of money orders," Manuel added.

He said it was against this background that he decided, "as a matter of conscience and duty to the public," to give a confidential Agriculture Department report on the Estes case to a newspaper reporter.

The reporter, who Manuel described as a longtime friend, was Earl Mazo of the New York Tribune.

It was for this action that Manuel was discharged after a day-long subcommittee wrangle behind closed doors Thursday. Democratic members spoke of a "breach of ethics."

The President, it was reported here, plans to stay at the Hotel Carlyle Sunday night and return to Washington Monday morning.

His father is under treatment for the after-effects of a stroke suffered last winter.

Good Fishing Is
Forecast June 16

HARRISBURG (AP) — Barring a sudden change in the weather, Pennsylvania streams are expected to be in top shape for the opening of bass season June 16.

The State Fish Commission reported Thursday that the unusually low level of most bass fishing streams and the higher than seasonal temperatures should make for good fishing in most areas.

The commission also took the opportunity to remind fishermen that the 340-acre lake at Gifford Pinchot Park in York county will be open for bass fishing for the first time this year.

Once the bass season gets started, all species of fish will be legal to catch in Pennsylvania. The season for walleyes, chain pickerel, northern pike and muskellunge opened May 12.

Both seasons end March 14.

SENATE PUTS
FOREIGN AID

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has voted a $4.7-billion ceiling on foreign aid spending next year — just about what President Kennedy requested.

But there's evidence Congress intends to slash away at the aid program before it finally provides the money that may be spent.

The measure passed Thursday by the Senate 61 to 23 simply sets limits on aid spending in the fiscal year that begins July 1. The appropriations will be handled later in separate legislation.

Actually, the administration had to settle for partial victory on its embattled provision for aid to Communist Poland and Yugoslavia in an attempt to wean them away from Soviet domination.

RESTRICT AID
Wednesday the Senate voted 57 to 24 to bar foreign aid to such countries. But, with heavy pressure from the White House and combined appeals from Democratic and Republican leaders, the Senate retreated Thursday and voted 56 to 34 to exempt gifts and sales of surplus food.

It still left the ban on any assistance under the foreign aid bill itself, including $10 million in economic development loans the administration had programmed for Yugoslavia next fiscal year.

PREPARE FOR
FOLK FESTIVAL
AT KUTZTOWN

The famous Pennsylvania Dutch, renowned in their folk ways, legendary in their cooking, are busying themselves for the high point of their year—the 13th annual Pennsylvania Dutch Folk Festival.

Among the new features scheduled for the colorful event at Kutztown, Pa., are demonstrations of 18th century waffle baking, fruit and vegetable drying, displays of the famous Dutch occult lore and an overall main theme of the year's customs in the Dutch country.

The festival, colorful and jam-packed with exhibitions, displays and demonstrations, again will be held on the spacious fairgrounds of the little community between Reading and Allentown on Route 222. Besides being the country's number one folk event, it is a leading summertime attraction in the Keystone state.

Besides the new features at the festival, to be held from June 30 through July 8, the old favorites that draw return visits to the small eastern Pennsylvania college town again will be on hand.

Craftsmen will demonstrate the bygone arts of making barrels, brooms and fish nets, bread will be baked—and that aroma!—in an outdoor "back uffa" (bake oven) and cider will be produced on an 18th century cider press.

Throughout the nine-day event, the famous Dutch cooking will prevail, as farm women serve the tasty dishes that have made their cooking a national institution.

Dodgers "Steal" Loop Lead By Beating Colts As Giants Drop 3rd In Row; Phils Win

By JIM HACKLEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

Who says you can't steal first? The Los Angeles Dodgers did it Friday night, snatching first place in the National League on the base stealing of mercurial Maury Wills. The swift shortstop ran the Dodgers to a 4-3 victory over the Houston Colts when he walked in the 13th inning, swiped two bases, then scored the winning run on a short sacrifice fly. The steals were the 31st and 32nd for Wills this season.

By winning, the Dodgers took a half-game edge over the San Francisco Giants, who were trounced by the St. Louis Cardinals 8-4. It was the third setback in a row for the Giants and the fourth straight victory for the Cards, on the rebound after a string of eight defeats.

PHILS BEAT REDS

Philadelphia beat Cincinnati's slumping Reds 10-3, and the New York Mets snapped their losing streak at 17, trimming the Chicago Cubs 4-3 in the opener of a doubleheader. The Cubs won 3-2 in the second game, called in the eighth inning because of darkness. Rain washed out the Pittsburgh-Braves game at Milwaukee.

Wills drew a walk off reliever Don McMahon leading off the Dodger 13th at Houston, stole second and third, then sprinted home on Willie Davis' fly to center. Larry Sherry held off the stubborn Colts in the last of the inning and was the winner with 4-1-3 scores in six innings of relief.

Ken Johnson went the first nine for Houston, giving up two runs in the second on Ron Fairly's triple, Wally Moon's double and John Roseboro's single, and a pinch hit homer by Frank Howard that tied it at 3-3 in the eighth. Bob Aspromonte singled home a Colt run in the fourth against Sandy Koufax, and they went ahead in the sixth with walks off Koufax and Ed Roebuck, a wild pitch and Merritt Ranney's two-run single.

LED SINCE APRIL 30

Sherry balled Ron Perranoski out of a bases-loaded jam in the ninth by striking out Carl Warwick, then put down the Colts the rest of the way.

Ken Boyer and Bill White led a 14-hit barrage and Lindy McDaniel turned in a perfect relief stint as the Cards rolled over the Giants, who find themselves out of first place for the first time since April 30. Boyer climaxed a decisive four-run uprising in the fifth against Juan Marichal by homering with one on and also had a single. White knocked in three runs with a homer and two singles.

McDaniel replaced winner Bob Gibson with two on and one out in the seventh and the score 6-4, retired Willie Mays and Willie McCovey, then put away six more Giants in a row. Mays socked his 20th homer with a man on in the third and McCovey followed with his eighth homer.

Dennis Bennett's four-hit pitching and the Phils' five-run fifth inning pushed the Reds to their fifth straight loss. Bennett chipped in with a two-run single during the fifth as the Phils piled up a 7-0 lead against loser Johnny Klippstein and reliever Moe Drabowsky. Roy Sievers knocked in three Philadelphia runs with a double and single, while Tony Taylor and Dom Demeter added home runs.

The Mets ended their long famine and made it 4-for-4 against the Cubs in the ninth inning when Charlie Neal sent in the winning run with a bases-loaded sacrifice fly. Jay Hook was the winner and Glen Hobbie lost his seventh in eight decisions.

Ron Santo, who had a two-run homer in the first game, decided the second when he singled across two runs in the seventh, breaking a 1-1 tie. Met starter Bob Miller, now 0-4, held the Cubs to two hits until they mounted their rally in the seventh.

SNEAD TAKES CLASSIC LEAD

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer

CLIFTON, N.J. (AP) — For once, Sam Snead wasn't complaining about his putting — he couldn't win very well.

But he must have thrown a few apprehensive glances over his shoulder long after leaving the Upper Montclair Country Club, where he posted a second round 66 and a 136 total for the 36-hole lead in the $100,000 Classic Golf Tournament.

Snead, who habitually moans about putts that won't drop, canned a dozen good ones early Friday. Then, with hardly a comment, he disappeared while the rest of the field tried to catch up to him.

No one succeeded in catching Sam during the long, hot afternoon, but Gene Littler, Dave Marr and Earl Stewart all came close. They tied for second at the 36-hole mark with 138s.

One stroke farther back was slender Paul Harney and at 140 were Gay Brewer, the first round leader; Dow Finsterwald, Frank Boynton, Wes Ellis and Buster Cupit, elder of a pair of sharp-shooting brothers. The younger, Jacky Cupit was among five tied at 141.

SAY JAIPUR IS HORSE TO BEAT

By JOHN CHANDLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The horse who catches Jaipur will win the Belmont Stakes.

That was the general observation today as a field of eight 3-year-olds lined up for the 94th running of the great 1½ mile gallop, which has been producing champions since it was inaugurated at Old Jerome Park in the Bronx in 1867. Since 1905 it has been run at Belmont Park on Long Island.

Jaipur is owned by George D. Widener, New York and Philadelphia sportsman. Other top contenders are decidedly owned by George A. Pope, Jr., and winner of the $162,150 Kentucky Derby; Donald P. Ross' Greek Money, who took the Preakness; and Peter W. Salmen Sr.'s Crimson Satan, disqualified from first in the Jersey Derby.

NEW YORK (AP) — Broadway and Hollywood celebrities had fun two ways this morning: They cut cake and drank champagne in a toast to the 70th birthday today of composer Cole Porter, and enjoyed a special midnight performance of an off-Broadway revival of "Anything Goes."

3 TIED FOR SUNNEHANNA TOURNEY LEAD

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP) — The second round of the Sunnehanna Amateur Golf Tournament opened today with three golfers tied at two-below-par rounds of 68 following Friday's starting round of 18 holes.

Jay Siegel of Narbeth, Pa., William Hyndman III of Philadelphia, and Kermit Zarley of Yakima, Wash., each scored 68 around the 6,826-yard Hilltop Golf Course at nearby Westmont. The course is normally a par 36-36-72 course, but trimmed to 35-35-70 for the tournament.

Hyndman—the 1958 Sunnehanna champion and currently a Walker Cup team member—went around the first 18 in 33-35. Siegel, a two-time Pennsylvania schoolboy champion and 1961 winner of the national Junior Chamber of Commerce golf title, went out in 32 but slowed down for a 36 in the back nine.

Zarley, holder of the Washington State amateur title, reversed the trend with a 36-32.

Trailing the leaders by one stroke are Gene Dahlberger, Atlanta, Ga., 35-34-69; Ted Bishop of Boston, 35-34-69; and Howell Fraser of Panama City, Fla., 35-34-69.

Three strokes back with 71s were Walton Smith, Clarksville, Tenn., 37-34-71; Mark Hopkins, Texas City, Tex., 38-33-71; Dick Chapman, Palm Beach, Fla., 35-36-71; and Sam Carmichael, Martinsville, Ind., 36-35-71.

The defending champion, Bob Siderow of Westport, Conn., was trailing behind with a 36-37-73.

A record field of 44 entries is competing in this ninth annual tournament. A double round of 36 holes was scheduled for today. The tourney will wind up with a final round of 18 holes Sunday.

Nailers vs. Moore.

An infield error which permitted a batsman to reach base robbed Tom Neiderer of a perfect no-hit, no-run performance Friday evening as he pitched Sylvania Shoe to a 2-0 verdict over the Nailers.

Neiderer faced only 19 men. He fanned 14 and did not issue a pass as the error allowed the Nailers their only base runner. The game required but one hour and five minutes.

Sylvania tallied a run in the third and added another tally in the sixth on a two-base error and a single by G. Lawrence.

HEAVY BOUT WINDS UP IN RING BRAWL

TOTOWA, N.J. (AP) — "Holy cow," said promoter Lou Durva today, "there I was in the ring and everyone is swinging at everyone else."

"It's a real donnybrook. Me, I'm in there as a peacemaker. Then they start swinging at me. So I get out in a hurry. I don't want to get killed."

That's how the Don McAttee-Tom McNeely heavyweight bout wound up here Friday night — with at least 20 fans in the ring, all swinging for all they were worth.

The cops arrived on the scene and escorted McNeely, McAttee and referee Paul Cavalier out. Cavalier had just awarded the bout to McAttee after disqualifying McNeely for low blows.

Poultry Raisers Can Reduce Costs If They Make Good Use Of Range In Spring, Summer

By FRANK S. ZETTLE
Adams County Farm Agent

Poultry raisers who make best use of good range in spring and summer reduce feed costs. A good range supplies green, tender, succulent, palatable and nutritious forage throughout the growing season. Young clover and grass are good sources of vitamin A and riboflavin. In addition, they supply protein, calcium and phosphorus. When chickens on range are at least eight weeks of age they can be given a mash mixture with the special ingredients that supply vitamin A and riboflavin. Vitamin D requirements are supplied by sunshine when chickens are outdoors from April 1 to October 1.

The top two inches of grass and clover, as it comes through the ground, has a protein value equal to or higher than the best growing mash. Tall grass has low protein value, and is not so palatable to chickens as the tender growth that follows mowing. Chickens do not range well in overgrown grass, so it is wise to keep the chicken range clipped short to be of most value for feeding.

Poultry growers in Adams County who have utilized good ranges to best advantage report pullets eat less purchased feed than when they are on bare ground or kept confined.

CREEP FEEDING CALVES

Creep feeding beef calves can be profitable if you are selling feeder calves at weaning time. Calves are going into the feedlot for full feeding at weaning, or you are a purebred breeder and have a good market for calves at weaning time.

However, creep feeding may not be profitable if you intend to "grow" calves following weaning primarily on forage, or if your cows are good milkers and pasture conditions are good.

Creep feeding will make calves heavier and they will show more "bloom" and condition at weaning. A creep feed mixture should be simple. It may be necessary to grind the grain coarsely for the first two or three weeks the calves are exposed to a creep. After the calves begin to eat, grinding the grain is no longer necessary. Whole grain will flow through a self-feeder more readily in damp weather.

OATS, SHELLED CORN

Equal parts by measure of whole oats and shelled corn as a good creep feed are recommended. If pastures become poor and the calves are not getting much milk, a protein supplement should make up about 10 per cent of the creep mixture.

Locate the creep in a shady area where the cows loaf. Either a permanent or portable creep may be used. Shaking some fresh straw inside the creep will often attract calves to it. Never use the creep as a place to catch calves; never let the feeder become empty; in wet weather, try to keep the feed from becoming damp and moldy, and don't run sheep and hogs in a pasture where there is a creep.

Further information and plans for building a portable creep can be obtained from the Extension Office.

NUCLEAR TESTS HARMFUL?

There has been only a slight increase in radiation levels as a result of weapons testing. The Public Health Service states that present fallout does not warrant undue public concern.

Radiation has always been a natural part of man's environment. Background radiation comes from cosmic rays striking the earth's atmosphere from outer space, and from naturally occurring radioactive materials in the earth, water, air and even in the human body itself. There are geographic variations in natural radiation. It is somewhat higher in the monazite sands of India and Brazil and in the radium ore-bearing areas of the West. Because of cosmic rays, it has a higher rate at Pike's Peak than at sea level. Some building construction materials, stone, brick, adobe or other natural earth products, contain more radioactivity than others, but all the amounts are insignificant.

The largest single source of people's average annual radiation exposure in the United States is from medical procedures; diagnostic radioisotopes or therapeutic X-rays, examination by fluoroscopes, and use of radium. The emphasis of the great beneficial uses of radiation. Not only in medicine but as a source of almost limitless energy and as a new tool for science, atomic energy and nuclear radiation are opening many new paths to progress.

CHANGES IN HEREDITY

There has been an extremely small increase in radiation levels as a result of nuclear weapons testing. Little is known about the effects on animals or humans of very low but prolonged radiation exposures. Most scientists believe the radiation which has always existed in the world is one of the factors that have caused changes in heredity throughout the history of life on this planet. Undoubtedly radioactivity from weapons testing will slightly increase the risk of genetic effects in succeeding generations. But the Public Health Service states that at present radiation levels and even at some-

Mr. Henry W. Miller, Jr., examines a Guthion-treated apple grown to be sold in the company's domestic and foreign markets under the well-known

"Mountaineer" brand. Guthion so effectively controlled major fruit pests on the entire 1500 acres that two complete cover sprays were eliminated.

"Guthion so effective it eliminates two cover sprays . . . gives us substantial savings in spray costs"

Says Mr. Henry W. Miller, Jr., President of Consolidated Orchard Co., Paw Paw, W. Va.

"Guthion is the nearest thing we have ever found to a perfect insecticide"

"In 1959, we sprayed 200 acres of our apple trees using the new Guthion program and found it to be so successful that in 1960, we expanded the Guthion program to our entire 1500 acres, containing approximately 51,000 trees," Mr. Miller reports. "Not only is Guthion of particular value because of its insecticide properties, but unlike many other sprays, Guthion is not damaging to fruit finish or foliage. Our 1960 crop was one of the cleanest we have ever produced."

Guthion saves, cuts out two sprays

"We found our big savings in using Guthion was the complete elimination of two cover sprays for insect control," Mr. Miller continues. "Last year we started spraying with Guthion at petal fall. But the second and fourth cover sprays were eliminated when checks of the orchard revealed they were unnecessary because of the remarkable killing power and long lasting effectiveness of Guthion. In the past, five to seven cover sprays have been necessary for insect control in this part of the country. But with Guthion, we are now able to maintain commercial control of all major fruit insects with only four cover sprays during the season, except for one species of mite which under certain unusual conditions makes it desirable to combine a miticide in one or more of the regular Guthion applications. The elimination of two cover sprays results in substantial savings by reducing the man hours previously spent by our spray crew; fuel costs and the wear and tear on $100,000 worth of equipment. We were surprised and gratified to discover that Guthion, which is considered an expensive material actually results in lower overall insect control cost."

Guthion eliminates complicated mixing "Spraying had become increasingly complicated due to the many chemicals formerly required to control all the major fruit pests," concluded Mr. Miller. "The old so-called standard formulas we used before Guthion often included four or more different insecticides which made precise mixing most difficult. Using one chemical, Guthion, not only simplifies our mixing problem, but at the same time provides the finest insect control we have ever experienced."

Higher profits from Guthion

Here's why Guthion means more fruit profits for you. It is the only single insecticide that controls all major fruit pests, all season long. Guthion alone equals or surpasses the control of any complicated combination of chemicals.

Guthion lasts longer, too . . . eliminates worry about special insect build-ups, specific timing and between cover sprays. To reduce your spray costs and get better insect control this season, use Guthion. It works!

GAS FUMES DRIVE MANY FROM HOMES

HUMMELSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—More than two dozen families were driven from their homes by poisonous gas fumes Thursday night after a 23-car freight train rammed a tractor-trailer loaded with industrial chemicals.

State police said the fumes seeped from leaking cylinders of chlorine gas scattered around the wreckage area in this small Dauphin County community.

The trailer was demolished. Broken gas cylinders were hurled hundreds of feet in every direction.

OVERCOME BY FUMES

Overcome by the fumes were train crewmen Fred Hauser, 42, and Hayes Englert, 32, both of Harrisburg; railroad police officer Raymond Williams, 49, of Reading; James Bryant, 49, a photographer from nearby Middletown; and Lory See, 27, of Hummelstown.

All but See were detained for observation in a Harrisburg hospital.

There were no injuries reported. Truck driver Thomas R. Conrad, 45, of Duncansville R. 2, was in the cab when the train struck, but walked away from the accident unhurt. The cab was damaged only slightly.

Train engineer Melvin Eppley, 41, of Mechanicsburg, also escaped injury.

The chemical truck was owned by the Western Pennsylvania Chemical Co., Inc., and was enroute to Pittsburgh at the time.

Train service was restored to normal a few hours later.

what higher levels, the additional risk is slight

A continuing program is being carried on by federal and state governments to assess the public health significance of the fallout situation and to prepare for actions to safeguard public health if these become necessary.

Present monitoring of milk is not a danger signal. Our milk is safe and, since milk is one of our most vital food products, its quality must be tested routinely for health reasons. Milk lends itself to special testing for radioactivity, because it is produced throughout the year in all sections of the country. Samples are always available and it is one of the easiest foods to test at central points. Milk samples provide a valuable index to human intake of radioactivity from other foods and water. Also, since the source of radioactivity in milk originates mainly in plants which have received fallout deposits, agricultural scientists have obtained important information on the air-rainfall-soil-plant-animal-man cycle. This knowledge is valuable for the nation's everyday health and would be vital to survival in event of nuclear attack.

Margaret Leighton Plays Role Of Teacher In Westinghouse's Special "The First Day"

"THE FIRST DAY" WESTINGHOUSE PRESENTS SPECIAL

"The words must come first," stated Margaret Leighton. "Then come the actors and the directors and the other interpretive artists. But without the words, you have nothing."

Miss Leighton was discussing "The First Day," the original drama written by Roger O. Hirson for the "Westinghouse Presents" series of "specials." The play will be seen on Wednesday, June 20, 10-11 p.m. EDT, over the CBS-TV network, and stars Miss Leighton, Ralph Bellamy, Mildred Dunnock, Nancy Wickwire and Patrick O'Neal.

The tall, English beauty who is currently appearing on Broadway in Tennessee Williams' new drama, "The Night of the Iguana," won the coveted Tony Award for a second time for her performance in the play. She gained her first Tony for her dual role and comes face to face with the fact that her family and friends now considered her "different." She is saddled with the stigma of having been in a mental hospital. How she moves for forward to experience her "first day" of a new life provides the body of the story.

Ralph Bellamy plays the part of her father. The teleplay will be directed by Tom Donovan and produced by Gordon Duff.

The actress admitted that she is nervous before a performance. "I've been an actress since I was 15, and it seems that I have always had some sort of stage fright. At the beginning, it was closer to terror, but I suppose that I am finally conquering my fears of appearing on the stage. I'm quite a nervous person off-stage," she said as she fidgeted with her script.

LIKES TO REHEARSE

"I love to rehearse. I know that some actresses think it a chore.

on Broadway and in motion pictures.

PLAYS PSYCHIATRIST

Patrick O'Neal is currently co-starring with Miss Leighton in "The Night of the Iguana" on Broadway. He starred in the TV mystery series, "Diagnosis Unknown" last year. In "The First Day," he plays the psychiatrist, Dr. Haberman.

Mildred Dunnock is one of the theater's finest character actresses. She has played scores of roles on Broadway, but is probably best remembered as the mother in "Death of a Salesman." In the Westinghouse play, Miss Dunnock is cast as the school principal, who questions the idea of allowing Miss Leighton to return to her teaching position after she has been in a mental hospital.

Nancy Wickwire is a young veteran of TV and the theater. She appeared recently in the off-Broadway production of "The Tavern." On television, she has "STONEY BURKE," a new, hour-long television series starring Jack Lord as a man dedicated to being the world's champion saddle-bronc buster, will be seen on ABC-TV Mondays, 9-10 p.m. starting in the fall.

The series will be set against the background of rodeo life. Each episode will show how "Stoney Burke" becomes involved with various people and the obstacles he encounters in pursuit of his goal — to win the gold buckle, emblematic of bronc-busting supremacy. Each story will feature a guest star.

If you've wondered what happened to Peggy Cass, who has been a panelist recently on "To Tell the Truth," the truth is that she's on the road with a show, "Everybody Loves Opal." Peggy is also slated to star in a musical at the Dallas State Fair in July.

MITCH MILLER'S latest album is "Family Sing Along With Mitch" and it has a Norman Rockwell sketch of Mitch suitable for framing.

CAROL BURNETT of the Garry Moore Show and the Huntley-Brinkley Report on NBC-TV winners of TV Guide Awards in 1961, have been nominated for awards again this year. Winners will be announced on "The TV Guide Award Show" June 24 over NBC-TV. Incidentally, Carol, Garry and producer of "Beverly Hillbillies," a new comedy half hour series starting on CBS-TV this fall, went all the way back to his boyhood for the idea. He used to spend his summers in a camp in the Ozarks and got to know and like the people he met in the hills. He feels that in casting the new show he has come across the perfect man to head his hillbilly clan, veteran Buddy Ebsen.

DAVID BRINKLEY thinks those Washington TV probes are under the impression that all television scripters want to write every wrong.

A fellow named Gil Fates is executive producer of "To Tell the Truth." Fates was an actor and director in the Broadway theater before entering television. He was on the road with the late Alexander Woolcott in "The Man Who Came to Dinner" when CBS hired him as its first TV stage manager. He progressed through performer and director to producer. Gil was recently asked what he thought was the most important thing in a panel guest. His answer: "Personality. If a person is outgoing, he's going to be good — even if he's not bright. He needs a combination of warm friendliness and the ability not to be overawed by his surroundings."

Mitch Miller Explains How A Pop Song Becomes A Hit

How does a song become a hit? According to Mitch Miller, a song in order to be successful must have identification, retentiveness, universal appeal and timing.

"By timing," explains the bearded one, "I mean it must fill a particular emotional need at a particular time. If the timing is wrong, even a good song may lay an egg."

Mitch also notes, "I don't hold with the guy who wants to know why they aren't writing pop songs like when he was a boy. They never will. Great songs are the ones that form incidental music to the first wild raptures of youth, the senior class picnic and the like — because you only fall in love once, and no one can convince you that the songs that went with it aren't the inspiration of the century — whether it happened yesterday or during the Boer War."

The recent winner of an ermine stole on "Window Shopping" told host Bob Kennedy, "It's great to be on a show that gives a 'wrap' about its contestants."

Alan Reed, the voice of Fred Flintstone, notes that the way some Hollywood stars horse around it's no wonder they're constantly getting hitched and unhitched!

Scientific code from Peggy Castle of "Lawman." When rockets reach the Milky Way the little stars will flutter, and whether it be night or day, the friction should make butter!

in "Separate Tables." HAS BRITISH ACCENT

Miss Leighton talked quickly and quietly with her British accent cutting through the rehearsal studio like a thin knife. There was no doubt about her English upbringing. It was there in her manner and her speech. It is a compliment to her talent that she plays a Southern lady in "Iguana" and a midwestern schoolteacher in "The First Day."

"As I said," the actress continued, "the playwright must provide the words and the story before our creative processes can commence. If the author does his job well, we have an excellent chance to come through with a successful show. If he doesn't, our work becomes a rescue effort. The best actress in the world will fail with a poor script. Conversely, an actress can appear to be brilliant if the lines she is given are inspired."

LIKES SCRIPT

"I'm delighted with the script for 'The First Day.' I think Mr. Hirson has done an extraordinary job. His insight into the character I play is remarkable."

In "The First Day," Miss Leighton portrays the role of a school teacher who has had a nervous breakdown and has recovered. She returns to her home

For me, it is the really creative area of the theater. The play takes shape during the rehearsals. It is born and it grows. You begin to understand the characters and with the director's guidance you learn to play it in concert with the other actors and actresses."

The director waved to Miss Leighton and she excused herself. She walked to the center of the studio and began to go through a scene with Ralph Bellamy.

Mr. Bellamy is one of the best-known actors in the theater. It is not well known to the layman, but since 1952 he has been the president of Equity, the union for actors working on the Broadway stage. The highpoint of Bellamy's career was his portrayal of President Roosevelt in "Sunrise At Campobello," which he did both starred in many top-flight dramatic series but is probably best known to daytime viewers as "Claire" in "As the World Turns." In "The First Day," she plays the role of Miss Leighton's sister. Tom Donovan, director of "The First Day," also directed the initial "Westinghouse Presents" drama this season, "The Dispossessed."

Edgar Allan Jones Jr., presiding judge on ABC-TV's "Day in Court," discussing program material: "I wouldn't let anything go on 'Day in Court' that violates recognized judicial ethics.
